

Airl is my saving grace. This radio station has changed my life. This station is so awesome that my neighbors even started listning to it. If it were to be displaced by a LPFM station, we would all be very upset and would boycott the LPFM stations that are broadcasting over it. LPFM stations are going to cause more harm than good.